

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ESTABLISHED 1840.

MEMPHIS, TENN. THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1872.

VOL. 32-NO. 258

OUR ANNUAL STATEMENT.

On the first of September (Sunday), we will publish our annual statement of the trade and commerce of Memphis, for the year ending the thirty-first instant. It will be complete in every respect, and will furnish a vast amount of information useful to all our merchants, and that cannot fail to prove of value to their correspondents. The edition of the APPEAL in which the "Statement" will appear, will be a very large one, anticipatory of a demand by our wholesale merchants especially, by whom this annual compilation of the APPEAL is regarded as the best advertisement that can be furnished to the outside public of the progress and prospects of Memphis. We need scarcely add that the issue of next Sunday will offer peculiar inducements to advertisers, who would remind the public that they are ready for the new year, to be, as we hope, the most prosperous our city has ever known. Cards to accompany the "Statement" will be received at the counting-room during the week.

ANDY JOHNSON.

What He is Expected to Do as the Candidate of the Opponents of the Democratic Party.

Onslaught on Democrats and Democracy by the Banner—The Mask of Deceit Thrown Off.

Opinions of the Press in and out of the State upon the Attitude and Prospects of "A. J." the Late Convention.

But many of the latter would take Johnson far better than they took Greeley. From the Springfield (Massachusetts) Republican.

Politics in Tennessee have conspired into a Johnson and an anti-Johnson party, which together occupy the Democratic and a good share of the Republican field. The great contest has been over the nomination for Congressmen at Large, for which ex-President Johnson and ex-Secretary Chase were working. Johnson had the most political power and following, but Chase was the best-natured fellow and boasted the most power among the "old families." It has been the avowed policy of A. J. to withdraw his name from the convention, before suffering defeat, and in season to run as an independent candidate. This was the actual policy for the convention yesterday, which nominated Chase, the old-time favorite, "refusing to allow his name to go before the voters. He will undoubtedly lose, and not improbably will, as he has done, be elected to Congress. He would make a very safe watch-dog upon his old enemies, especially upon an R. F. Butler. At events, he will make a lively feature in the campaign.

From the Nashville Banner.

The so-called Democratic management of the State, which has been really a front for the time-honored name of Democracy, since it has been very little better than select corporation of office-seekers, made up largely of old Whigs as well as Democrats, calling for a new and more energetic administration, has proved itself a most inefficient and unscrupulous social despotism. Many have been the victims of its arbitrary and despotic rule. It has lived upon the prejudices and passions of the people, rather than upon any sense of duty or duty to the State at large. It has been identified with the worst of the old Whig and Democratic party, and has been the cause of much of the evil that has befallen the State. It has been the cause of much of the evil that has befallen the State. It has been the cause of much of the evil that has befallen the State.
